Postdoc Pathways Café

Join us tomorrow for our second Postdoc Pathways Café of the academic year! This is a great opportunity for current Notre Dame postdocs and graduate students to engage with current/past postdocs pursuing diverse careers via direct/video-conferencing over free lunches provided by the Postdoc Office.
Ian Street earned his PhD in plant biology from Washington University in St. Louis and did a postdoc studying plant development at Dartmouth College. He is currently a Virtual Lab Manager at HappiLabs, an editor of The National Postdoc Association’s newsletter, The POSTDOCket, and writes about science on his blog The Quiet Branches.

Workshop: Interpreting Subtext in Conversational English

Have you ever left a conversation worried that you’ve misinterpreted a person’s meaning or intention? Then this workshop is for you! In this workshop, we will learn how to identify, interpret, and practice some of the verbal signals and cues that native English speakers use to indirectly communicate intention and meaning. Examples include when “yes” or “maybe” actually means “no thank you.”

When: Wednesday, October 24 from 5:15-6:30 p.m.

Understanding Political Correctness, Microaggressions, and Nonverbal Communications in the US Workplace Culture

Organized by the Notre Dame Staff of International Descent
Tuesday, Oct 30, from 12:00 - 1:00 pm in 231A Hesburgh Library (2nd floor on the west side of the building).
The session will be facilitated by Christopher Scheirer (postdoc) from the Center for the Study of Languages and Cultures (CSLC). This workshop is designed to be hands-on with opportunities for demonstration, discussion, and practice. Lunch is not provided, so please bring your own lunch to eat and enjoy while we learn. Please click HERE to RSVP by so we know how many to expect.

Income Tax Information Meeting
Tax Assistance Program TAP

TAP provides tax guidance and prepares tax returns for members of Notre Dame's international community. In general, anyone earning money in the US must pay income tax on the income earned.

This presentation will be offered four times in the Mendoza College of Business (MCB).
Tue, 10/23, 12 pm, L050 MCB
Mon, 10/29, 4 pm, 161 MCB

Prof. Ken Milani will give a general presentation on how US tax laws affect international visitors, and share practical ways to save tax dollars and your time.

Global Cafe

Tuesday, October 30, 2018 @ 5:30-7:00PM
LaFortune Ballroom

You are invited for good food and conversation at the October Global Cafe as we celebrate Dia de los Muertos with the Latinx Graduate Student Association. There will be entertainment by Marichi ND, a delicious taco bar from Cinco 5, berries, and specialty coffee & tea from The Coffee Cart!

iBiology Courses

iBiology Courses is now offering 2 online training courses in self-paced format: Planning Your Scientific Journey and Business Concepts for Life Scientists (this course is a collaborative effort with WashU & UCSF). These courses, which are free and accessible at any time, can help trainees become more effective scientists and plan for their future careers. Advanced undergrads, grad students and postdocs are encouraged to enroll today. iBiology Courses is primarily funded by the NSF and NIH.

Colleges of Science and Engineering - Joint Annual Meeting 2018
The Colleges of Science and Engineering - Joint Annual Meeting (COSE-JAM) for Graduate Students and Postdoctoral Scholars will take place in Jordan Hall on Friday, December 7, 2018. This all-day event will consist of morning podium presentations, a luncheon panel discussion with the Associate Director of the Office for Postdoctoral Scholars as well as multiple Directors of Graduate Studies from both colleges, followed by an afternoon poster session and concurrent social reception.

All graduate students and postdoctoral scholars at ND and IUSM are invited to participate. Do not hesitate to present work in preparation for upcoming meetings and interviews as well as from recent conferences. Please indicate if you have a preference for an oral or poster presentation when submitting your abstract.

To participate, please submit abstracts of 300 words or less by Thursday, November 29, 2018. Please limit the number of figures and use this website for the online abstract submission process.

Please, direct questions about participating in COSE-JAM or the abstract submission process to Prof. Matthew Ravosa, Biological Sciences.
