Merry Christmas from the Office for Postdoctoral Scholars!

Due to the holidays, the next Postdoc Newsletter will arrive in your inboxes Tuesday, January 8th.

We hope you have a very happy holiday season, and safe travels during winter break!

Upcoming Campus Events
It's never too early to mark these professional development events in your calendar!

StrengthsFinder: Identifying & Capitalizing on Your Talents
Date: Wednesday, February 27
Time: 1:00 p.m. - 3:00 p.m.
Register here.

One of the most important aspects of your professional development is being able to identify and capitalize on your top strengths in the workplace. This workshop will assist you in identifying your strengths and opportunities to use them more fully and frequently at work. Participants must complete the Clifton StrengthsFinder self-assessment and read about their top five talents and strengths prior to the workshop.

On-Campus Workshops
Center for the Study of Languages and Cultures
Hesburgh Libraries and Navari Family Center for Digital Scholarship
Office of Human Resources
Office of Information Technologies
Kaneb Center for Teaching and Learning
The Writing Center

Productive Conflict: Harnessing the Power of Your DiSC Style
Date: Thursday, March 7
Time: 8:30 a.m. - 12:00 p.m.
Register here.

Workplace conflict is inevitable. Everything DiSC Productive Conflict helps learners improve self-assessment and open communication. Participants will learn conflict management strategies and be able to apply them in the workplace.

Using MBTI Type in Your Career Development Strategy
Date: Wednesday, April 24
Time: 1:00 p.m. - 3:00 p.m.
Register here.

Understanding the MBTI can help you to understand yourself and others. This workshop will assist you in identifying your MBTI type and how it can inform your career development.
Identifying and developing a strategy is key to a successful career development process. Participants will explore their Myers-Briggs Type to locate a variety of career areas & activities that fit their interests. Prerequisite: This workshop is designed to help individuals explore further the MBTI® framework after an initial feedback session on the MBTI®. Participants are encouraged to attend the introductory "Know Thyself: An Introduction to the Myers-Briggs® Type Indicator (MBTI)" workshop prior to registering for this workshop.

Note: This workshop will require participants to complete the "Everything DiSC Productive Conflict" assessment. Instructions for completing the assessment will be sent to participants once the registration deadline has passed.

Facilities

The Indiana CTSI is soliciting proposals from postdoctoral researchers to develop translational research through the use of technologies and expertise at the Indiana CTSI-designated core facilities available at all partner institutions.

The Postdoc Challenge offers postdoctoral researchers at Indiana University, Indiana University School of Medicine, IUPUI, Purdue University, and the University of Notre Dame valuable proposal writing and reviewing experience in areas related to translational research through the use of one or more of the CTSI-designated core facilities at any of the partner universities. This is a competitive opportunity for a $5,000 award in the form of an expense account for use of core facility services. Funding is to be used only for services provided by the core facilities. Indiana CTSI-designated core facilities are listed on the CTSI website.

Submission Deadline: February 22, 2019
Applications to this program are limited to $5,000 and are of one (1) year duration.
