Postdoc Pathways Café

A Notre Dame graduate, Dr. Kelsey Weigel joined Flagship Biosciences as a scientist. Flagship Biosciences is an imaging analysis company that operates in the pre-clinical to clinical space and focuses on the diagnostic personalized medicine space. Kelsey utilizes her knowledge of cancer signaling pathways and mechanisms of action to interact with clients including large and small pharmaceutical companies and physicians. Her experiences gained in academia directly contribute to study design, data interpretation, and data-driven decision-making to improve cancer drug development and patient treatment opportunities.

Date: Wednesday, March 20
Time: 12:00 p.m. to 1:00 p.m.

English Language Table

The English Language Table is a bi-monthly chance to practice English with both native and non-native speakers and to make some new friends in the process. It is FREE and open to all international friends at Notre Dame: students, faculty, staff, post-docs, and spouses. There is no need to register – just come! This event is held in the Center for the Study of Languages and Cultures (329 DeBartolo) every second and fourth Sunday of the month, from 2:00 to 3:00pm.

For more information, visit the English Language Table webpage or contact Maddie Woodruff. Next Meeting: Sunday, March 24. "Game Day" -- Participants will both play some games and talk about the culture of games around the world. Come ready to play and share!
