Connecting With Others: Reaching Potential through Inclusion
Ralph Brandt

This full day training delves deep into the true definition of inclusion and makes a case for connection. Ultimately, participants will learn the core inclusion competencies, application of those competencies, and follow-up tools that lead to increased organizational effectiveness, increased employee engagement, and superior leadership. Examining the latest demographic trends and analyzing fluid cultural dimensions are just a few stops in this training of improving the skills that create the connective culture that our organizations vitally need.

Space is limited so please reserve your spot by clicking here. This is great training and further helps its participants develop and contribute to our diversity and inclusion initiatives, whether working with staff, faculty or students. This is a strong developmental opportunity for anyone interested in becoming a Diversity Educational Volunteer (DEV). If you have any questions please don't hesitate to contact Eric Love at elove1@nd.edu.

Light continental breakfast will be provided at 8:00 am, lunch and afternoon refreshments also provided.

Date: Friday, May 31
Time: 8:30 a.m. - 5:00 p.m.
Location: 210-214 McKenna Hall
