Cheers to a Great Postdoc Appreciation Week!

From understanding pre- and post- grant awards to navigating novel careers in academia and industry, we had a wonderful turnout during National Postdoc Appreciation Week 2019. We kicked off the week with free breakfast in the Atrium of our new home in Bond Hall, and concluded the celebration with a Happy Hour at Rohr's!

The winners of our Notre Dame football game ticket drawing will be posted next week.

Workshop Highlights

Becoming a More Self-Aware and Effective Self-Advocate

Wednesday, September 25; 12:00 p.m. in 210 Duncan Student Center

Presenter: Joe Holt, Associate Teaching Professor, Mendoza College of Business

It is critical in both our professional and personal lives to speak up effectively for what we need and want. But many of us fail to do so with unfortunate consequences for ourselves and ultimately for our most important teams and other relationships. In this workshop we will complete a bargaining style self-assessment to help participants get a better sense of their negotiation instincts and discuss strategies and tactics for speaking up more effectively for yourselves. If you don't, who will?

Career Pathway Seminar: Scientist to IP Manager for Tech Transfer Office

Thursday, September 26, 5:00 p.m. - 6:15 p.m. in Jordan Science Hall 322

Join Notre Dame alum Dr. Katherine Richards, Intellectual Property Manager at Notre Dame's IDEA Center, as she shares about her career pathway. Dinner will be served, please RSVP. Questions? Contact Liz Loughran at loughran.11@nd.edu or 574-631-2080

Did You Know...

...that the University of Notre Dame holds its annual ND Forum, which kicks off this week and continues throughout the academic year? Past years have focused on "The Catholic Artistic Heritage," "Women in Leadership," "Immigration," and "Sustainable Energy." The theme of this year's ND Forum is "'Rebuild My Church': Crisis and Response," and will examine the sexual abuse crisis in the Catholic Church.

ND Forum Keynote: "The Church Crisis: Where Are We Now?"
Wednesday, Sept. 25; 7 to 8:30 p.m. in the Leighton Concert Hall, DeBartolo Performing Arts Center
This first keynote event in the 2019-20 ND Forum, "'Rebuild My Church': Crisis and Response," features panelists Peter Steinfels, Kathleen McChesney, Archbishop William Lori, Juan Carlos Cruz and moderator John Allen.

Tickets are available on a first-come, first-served basis at 6 p.m. Sept. 25 at the DPAC box office. Doors open at 6 p.m.
