How to Align Your Time with Your Priorities

Thursday, February 13; 2:00 p.m. - 3:30 p.m. ET

Presenter: Naomi Levy | Associate Professor, Santa Clara University

Grab your strategic plan and learn the secret to making it work day-to-day and week-to-week! How to Align Your Time with Your Priorities is a step-by-step guide to holding a weekly planning meeting (aka The Sunday Meeting). In this webinar you'll learn:

- What works...and what DOESN'T work when it comes to weekly planning
- Why weekly planning is the bridge between your strategic plan and getting control of your workday
- The 30-minute technique that will help you make sure that the most important things get done each day
- And much more...

This is a HANDS-ON webinar where you'll not only learn the technique but actually do it!

transitioned from a STEM PhD to a career in management consulting. They will cover what it is like to be an Associate at McKinsey & Company, give tips on how to maximize your chances of landing the same job that they have, and answer questions you may have about related topics. This event is kindly supported by Harper Cancer Research Institute, and organized by the Graduate Consulting Club and Graduate Career Services.

Lunch is included. RSVP here.

Career Pathway Seminar: Scientific Sales
4:30 p.m. - 5:30 p.m.

Join Dr. Carolyn LaBonia, Notre Dame alum and Scientific Sales Representative at STEMCELL Technologies, as she discusses her career path. Carolyn earned her PhD from the Department of Chemistry & Biochemistry, was an NSF GRFP Fellow and a Harper Cancer Research Institute's Research Like a Champion awardee. Now Carolyn manages current customer relationships and identifies potential customers, introducing them to STEMCELL Technologies products and providing technical support and customer service to scientists. This event is co-hosted by Harper Cancer Research Institute and Graduate Career Services.

Please RSVP to Liz Loughran at loughran.11@nd.edu. Dinner will be served.
